

To Whom it May Concern

RE: Tracey Bell is fabulous!

December 22, 2014

This is a note in appreciation of Tracey Bell, who has performed numerous times for Holt Renfrew, both for clients and for employees. This fall, she appeared as Marilyn Monroe at an employee rally which was announcing a sales incentive trip to Beverly Hills for our top performers.

As always, Tracey was the highlight of the event, never breaking character and delighting our guests with a performance that they are still talking about.

Tracey has a unique talent. That is apparent to all. I also appreciate her as the consummate professional. She is always on time, prepared, considerate of others, and warm and gracious.

Through our many professional engagements, I am proud to call her a friend, and wish her continued success.

Sincerely,

Carla Stef

Manager, Marketing and Public Relations

Holt Renfrew