Tracey Bell,
Performer Extraordinaire

Dear Tracey:

On behalf of our firm and client, the Canadian Life and Health Insurance Association's Claims Section Annual Conference, I wish to express our sincere thanks for your performance at the CLHA's 2007 Claims Conference special event dinner at the Fairmont Palliser this past May.

Your wide-ranging musical and performance art talents resulted in a fabulously inter-active show that was so very well-received by our delegates and speakers, visiting dignitaries and guests at our special event evening.

As an event and conference planner for many years, I was most appreciative of your professionalism and punctuality and your ability to customize the presentation for us so as to involve our executive and notables in the audience.

Your high energy show is appealing to a wide-range of demographic, not just the boomers, and as such, is so versatile and suitable for a variety of events.

Tracey, I shall not hesitate to once again engage your services and talents in the near future, and will spread the word where ever I am able.

Sincerely,

Marian Kingsmill
