Dear Colleague,

On March 5th, 2006, Nu Restaurant enlisted Tracey Bell to host The Nu Academy Awards party. It was important to us to not only have a host who was entertaining, but who was also an "ambassador" for our brand to a discerning clientele.

Tracey Bell rose to the occasion. She was glamorous, charismatic, attractive, and very entertaining. She not only did her duty as host, she also mixed and mingled in the crowd, not breaking character once, to the delight of all around.

It was a sincere pleasure to work with Ms. Bell and it is with great confidence that I recommend her to any event planner.

Sincerely,

Nu Restaurant + Lounge
Harry Kambolis, Owner
